Cars & Couture Celebrates 15 Years of Style, Speed, and Philanthropy at Motor Enclave

TAMPA, FL — February 7, 2026 — Cars & Couture, Tampa Bay's premier luxury automotive and fashion experience, returns to The Motor Enclave on Saturday, February 7, 2026, from 6:00 p.m. to 10:00 p.m., celebrating its 15th annual event with an elevated evening of exotic cars, high fashion, art, and purpose. The event proudly benefits Jacob's Touch Foundation for Autism, a nonprofit dedicated to supporting children with autism and their families.

Hosted at the exclusive Motor Enclave Tampa, Cars & Couture brings together rare and exotic automobiles, a high-energy fashion runway show, live entertainment, and curated art installations—all set against one of Florida's most prestigious automotive backdrops.

This milestone year offers guests two VIP ticket experiences, each designed to deliver an unforgettable night while supporting a meaningful cause:

VIP Ticket Options

Balcony Cocktail Party Ticket

- Access to the Pit Lane and Upstairs Car & Art Showcase
- Open Bar (no food included)
- Elevated balcony views of the fashion runway show
- A social, cocktail-style experience with premium sightlines

All-Access Dinner & Show Ticket

- Full access to the Pit Lane and Upstairs Car & Art Showcase

- Stage-front reserved seating for the fashion runway show
- Dinner and Open Bar included
- The most immersive and premium Cars & Couture experience

Now in its 15th year, Cars & Couture has become a signature Tampa Bay event, blending luxury lifestyle, automotive culture, and philanthropy into one unforgettable evening. The event attracts car collectors, fashion designers, business leaders, creatives, and community supporters from across Florida and beyond.

Proceeds from the event directly benefit Jacob's Touch Foundation for Autism, helping fund programs, resources, and support services for families.

Tickets are limited and expected to sell quickly.
